

PNGX Announcement

14 April 2021

Departure of Company Secretary, Jack Parina and Appointment of Marilyn Saroa as Acting Company Secretary

This notice is issued to inform the market of the departure of the Company Secretary, Jack Parina on 13 April 2021. Mr Parina was appointed on 12 November 2020.

Mr Parina is replaced by Marilyn Saroa who has been appointed as Acting Company Secretary. Ms Saroa joined us in March 2017 as the Legal and Compliance Manager and during this tenure was appointed in March 2019 in an acting capacity to relieve the then Company Secretary between periods from March to December 2019. She is currently the Head of Asset Management Unit.

Ms Saroa holds a Bachelor of Law Degree from the University of Papua New Guinea and is a practising lawyer with more than ten (10) years litigation and commercial law experience in private practice.

On behalf of the Board, the Chairman thanks Mr Parina for his contribution in his short time with us and at the same time welcomes Ms Saroa to the role.
